1 Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers;

2 but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on his law he meditates day and night.

3 He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

4 The wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away.

5 Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;

6 for the Lord knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish. ^(ESV)

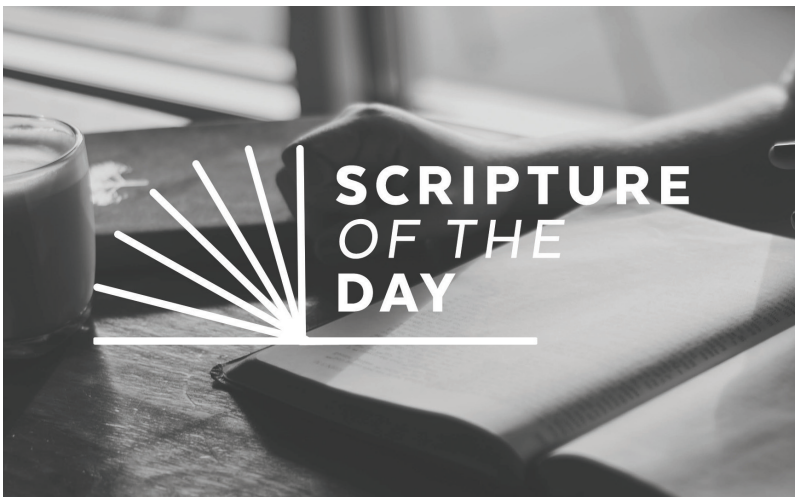

Application Questions:

1. Read Romans 12:2 Honestly assess how many minutes each day you spend ingesting ideas from the world (i.e. TV, movies, music, podcasts, social media, etc) compared to God's Word. What is something you are willing to cut out or turn off so you can spend more time thinking about Scripture?

2. Read Joshua 1:6-8 and James 1:25. What is your plan this week to fixate your mind on the meat of God's Word?

3. Read Psalm 119:11. BYOMV (bring your own memory verse). Pick a verse to memorize this week and share it with your group. What benefits have you noticed when a verse is constantly on your mind? (If you can't decide on a verse, let me suggest a verse from Psalm 119)

4. Read Psalm 1:3-6 and Jeremiah 17:5-8. How have you seen the signs of these paths playing out in your own life or in the lives of others?
