

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all respect, not only to the good and gentle but also to the unjust.

19 For this is a gracious thing, when, mindful of God, one endures sorrows while suffering unjustly.

20 For what credit is it if, when you sin and are beaten for it, you endure? But if when you do good and suffer for it you endure, this is a gracious thing in the sight of God.

Application Questions

Before we apply the Bible to our lives today, we need to know what the author meant when he wrote it thousands of years ago.

#1. Why do we often have a negative view of submission today?

#2. Read James 4:7 & Ephesians 5:21. How did this Bible study change or renew your mind regarding submission?

#3. What are some differences between slavery in the Bible and slavery in America?

#4. Have you ever treated or thought of someone unjustly over “race”? Or have you ever been unjustly treated because of the color of your skin?

#5. Read Galatians 3:28. How are you going to see people so that you love others in the same way Jesus loved you?

#6. Has there been a time when you suffered for doing what was right?

#7. What are some of the ways Jesus suffered for you? How can you prepare your heart to hear the sermon about his suffering next week?
