

The Front Line of Defense

Matthew 18:15-17

15 If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.

16 But if he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, that every charge may be established by the evidence of two or three witnesses.

17 If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church. And if he refuses to listen even to the church, let him be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. <sup>(ESV)</sup>

Application Questions:

1. Read Matthew 18:15-17. How would you rate your level of obedience to these commands prior to today?
2. Read Proverbs 27:5-6. How do these verses challenge the typical way we think as Americans?
3. Read Proverbs 20:19, 25:9 and 26:20. What are some of the ways you could “add sin to the pile” that you will commit to avoid this year?
4. Read Galatians 6:1-2 What are some of the temptations you will need to “watch out” for as you seek to win your brother this year? What are some proactive ways you will be gentle with others?
5. Read Proverbs 3:5-6. What are some common thoughts you might have that go against God’s process that he lays out in Matthew 18? Are you fully committed to following God’s process from here on out?
