1 Let every person be subject to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God.

2 Therefore whoever resists the authorities resists what God has appointed, and those who resist will incur judgment.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good conduct, but to bad. Would you have no fear of the one who is in authority? Then do what is good, and you will receive his approval,

4 for he is God's servant for your good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword in vain. For he is the servant of God, an avenger who carries out God's wrath on the wrongdoer.

5 Therefore one must be in subjection, not only to avoid God's wrath but also for the sake of conscience.

6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for the authorities are ministers of God, attending to this very thing.

7 Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed.<sup>ESV</sup>

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

#1. Why is it so hard for us to submit?

#2. Why is it hard for us to submit to the governing authorities specifically?

#3. Read Romans 13:1-7, Titus 3:1-3 & 1 Peter 2:13-17. Does everyone in your group agree God is commanding us to submit to the governing authorities? How are you going to obey this command even if others do not?

#4. Can you think of an example where obeying God's command proved to be better than doing what was right in your own sight?

#5. Study the examples of civil disobedience in Exodus 1, Daniel 3, Daniel 6 and Acts 4 & 5. What does every example have in common?

How are these examples different from our current events in America?
