

REMEMBERING ROMANS

ROMANS 14:20-23

Romans 14 Review: _____(v20-21)

20 Do not, for the sake of food, destroy the work of God. Everything is indeed clean, but it is wrong for anyone to make another stumble by what he eats.

21 It is good not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything that causes your brother to stumble.

22 The faith that you have, keep between yourself and God. Blessed is the one who has no reason to pass judgment on himself for what he approves.

23 But whoever has doubts is condemned if he eats, because the eating is not from faith.

For whatever does not proceed from faith is sin

APPLICATION QUESTIONS

This week our fellowship groups are reviewing Romans. Next week we celebrate with Christmas Parties. These are the last two fellowship groups before Christmas break and the transition into two churches with Huntington Beach and Long Beach.

ROMANS REVIEW:

What is something you are going to take away from our study of Romans 14?

What is something you are going to take away from our study of Romans 12-14?

What is something you are going to take away from our study of Romans 1-14?

#1. As you enter this holiday season, is there anything you would pass judgment on yourself for because you know what you are doing is not approved as God’s will?

If yes, how can you confess to your one anothers so they can pray for you?

If not, then you are “blessed” as it says in Romans 14:22.

#2. How can you continue to make sure what you are doing comes “out of your faith” in Jesus?

What is a verse about faith you can meditate on or memorize that will inspire you?

PRAYER MEETING

Monday night @ 7:00 PM we will have a time of prayer for those who are hurting this holiday season.

SCRIPTURE OF THE DAY

Read Isaiah 40 with us this Wednesday and look for a new video on our YouTube channel: Scripture Of The Day.

Isaiah 40:9
Go on up to a high mountain,
O Zion, herald of good news;
lift up your voice with strength,
O Jerusalem, herald of good news;
lift it up, fear not;
say to the cities of Judah,
“Behold your God!”

THANKS to all of you who have been reading Isaiah!

This week we will start reading a whole new section of the book once it gets to this good news of Isaiah 40!

If you have fallen behind or haven’t been reading with us, these Isaiah 40 chapters will prophesy of the coming of God’s humble servant. They will get you ready for Christmas!
