Mark 7:24-8:10

#1. _____

#2. _____

#3. _____

24 And from there he arose and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered a house and did not want anyone to know, yet he could not be hidden.

25 But immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him and came and fell down at his feet.

26 Now the woman was a Gentile, a Syrophoenician by birth. And she begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

27 And he said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 But she answered him, "Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

29 And he said to her, "For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter."

30 And she went home and found the child lying in bed and the demon gone.

31 Then he returned from the region of Tyre and went through Sidon to the Sea of Galilee, in the region of the Decapolis.

32 And they brought to him a man who was deaf and had a speech impediment, and they begged him to lay his hand on him.

33 And taking him aside from the crowd privately, he put his fingers into his ears, and after spitting touched his tongue.

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed and said to him, "Ephphatha," that is, "Be opened."

35 And his ears were opened, his tongue was released, and he spoke plainly.

36 And Jesus charged them to tell no one. But the more he charged them, the more zealously they proclaimed it.

37 And they were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the mute speak."

1 In those days, when again a great crowd had gathered, and they had nothing to eat, he called his disciples to him and said to them,

2 "I have compassion on the crowd, because they have been with me now three days and have nothing to eat.

3 And if I send them away hungry to their homes, they will faint on the way. And some of them have come from far away."

4 And his disciples answered him, "How can one feed these people with bread here in this desolate place?"

5 And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."

6 And he directed the crowd to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves, and having given thanks, he broke them and gave them to his disciples to set before the people; and they set them before the crowd.

7 And they had a few small fish. And having blessed them, he said that these also should be set before them.

8 And they ate and were satisfied. And they took up the broken pieces left over, seven baskets full.

9 And there were about four thousand people. And he sent them away.

10 And immediately he got into the boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. ^{ESV}

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

Miracle #1

Mark 7:24-30

The Gentile woman who had faith

Miracle #2

Mark 7:31-37

The deaf and mute man who proclaimed Jesus

Miracle #3

Mark 8:1-10

The hungry crowd who came from far away

- #1. Which one of the three miracles stood out to you and why?
- #2. Who are the people you would consider too “far away” to come to Jesus?

Read Isaiah 49:1-12. How are you going to rethink your prayerful approach towards them?

- #3. Just as the man and his friends proclaimed what Jesus had done, what are you ready to tell others Jesus has done for you?
- #4. How would you describe your faith in Jesus right now?

Are you like the woman begging Jesus for crumbs of bread? OR Are you like the disciples thinking you have no bread?

What are you going to do by faith in Jesus this week?

- #5. Spend some time together as a fellowship group praying “Your Kingdom Come!”
What are you all looking forward to about the kingdom to pray for?

We are praying for REVIVAL Monday night at 7:00 PM in the Prayer Room!
