Aleph

1 Blessed are those whose way is blameless, who walk in the law of the LORD!

2 Blessed are those who keep his testimonies,
who seek him with their whole heart,

3 who also do no wrong,
but walk in his ways!

4 You have commanded your precepts
to be kept diligently.

5 Oh that my ways may be steadfast
in keeping your statutes!

6 Then I shall not be put to shame,
having my eyes fixed on all your commandments.

7 I will praise you with an upright heart,
when I learn your righteous rules.

8 I will keep your statutes;
do not utterly forsake me!

Beth

9 How can a young man keep his way pure?
By guarding it according to your word.

10 With my whole heart I seek you;
let me not wander from your commandments!

11 I have stored up your word in my heart,
that I might not sin against you.

12 Blessed are you, O LORD;
teach me your statutes!

13 With my lips I declare
all the rules of your mouth.

14 In the way of your testimonies I delight
as much as in all riches.

15 I will meditate on your precepts
and fix my eyes on your ways.

16 I will delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

Gimel

17 Deal bountifully with your servant,
that I may live and keep your word.

18 Open my eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of your law. ^{ESV}

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

Take some time this week to consider how God wants you to respond to what we learned in Psalm 119. Be ready to discuss these questions with your fellowship group this week. We also invite you to explore “the whole ocean” of Psalm 119 with us as we read it throughout the week. Be ready to share what you are learning with others at the church!

1. How would you describe your interaction with God’s word over the past couple of weeks before this sermon?
2. What are specific ways you need God to “open your eyes” so you can get more from the word?
3. What are some of things that are worth less that you are asking God to turn your eyes away from so that you wouldn’t look to them for your life?
4. Read John 15:4-11. How does the truth that God wrote the Bible so that you could know him change the way you will treat the Bible this week?

Psalm 119

5. What are some of the themes you have started to trace through your reading of Psalm 119 so far?
6. What have you learned about interacting with God’s Word from the example of the author of Psalm 119 that you are implementing in your own life?

We are PRAYING FOR REVIVAL on Monday night at 7:00 PM in the Prayer Room!
