

BE WISE

6 Go to the ant, O sluggard;
consider her ways, and be wise.

7 Without having any chief,
officer, or ruler,

8 she prepares her bread in summer
and gathers her food in harvest.

9 How long will you lie there, O
sluggard?

When will you arise from your sleep?

10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest,

11 and poverty will come upon you
like a robber,
and want like an armed man.^{ESV}

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. What wisdom have you gleaned from the Book of Proverbs so far? (Have something you've read you are ready to share with your Fellowship Group!)

2. What stood out to you from Proverbs 6:6-11?

3. What did you learn from the ant?

Are there any changes you will make to your self-supervision?

Are there any sluggardly tendencies you are going to turn away from?

4. Read Deuteronomy 6:6-7. Parents, how ant-like are you in teaching wisdom to your children during the limited time you have them in your home?

5. Read Proverbs 11:30 and Matthew 9:35-38. What will you do this week to make sure you aren't sleeping during the plentiful harvest of souls?

The Bible Class: Join us at 9am next Sunday for The Bible Class in the Revival Room as we start a new series-THE BIBLE CLASS ON HONEST WORK

We are PRAYING FOR REVIVAL on Monday night at 7:00 PM in the Prayer Room!
