The Abomination Of Desolation

Mark 13:14-27

#1. _____

#2. _____

#3. _____

14 “But when you see the abomination of desolation standing where he ought not to be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

15 Let the one who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter his house, to take anything out,

16 and let the one who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak.

17 And alas for women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing infants in those days!

18 Pray that it may not happen in winter.

19 For in those days there will be such tribulation as has not been from the beginning of the creation that God created until now, and never will be.

20 And if the Lord had not cut short the days, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect, whom he chose, he shortened the days.

21 And then if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Christ!’ or ‘Look, there he is!’ do not believe it.

22 For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, the elect.

23 But be on guard; I have told you all things beforehand.

24 “But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,

25 and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

26 And then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven. ^{ESV}

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

Although there are NO official fellowship groups this week, please take time to consider what you heard in the sermon and apply it!

#1. STOP! Take a moment to evaluate how you listen to a sermon or read the Scripture. Do you start with yourself in a me-centered hermeneutic? OR do you consider the context of what the author originally meant?

#2. CONSIDER! How does the example of the temple being destroyed in 70 AD force you to consider the reality of judgment coming on the whole world?

#3. Who do you know that is not ready for Jesus to return? How can you invite them to church next weekend?

#4. OBSERVE! Write down a verse you will use to tell someone Jesus is coming:

What is something about this verse that will open their eyes to see how truly epic seeing Jesus will be?

We are PRAYING FOR REVIVAL on Monday night at 7:00 PM in the Prayer Room!
